“Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket;
it is set on a lampstand,
where it gives light to all in the house.”

A few years ago there was a motel chain that advertised with the catchphrase: We'll leave the light on for you. If their advertising agency does not mind, this is a great phrase for we Christians to use, as well. In today's Mass readings, the theme of light is very evident. Jesus is the Light of the World, but he teaches us that we, too, are to be lights to the world. The prophet Isaiah gives us some specific guidance on how to let our "light break forth like the dawn" ... be mindful of the poor, remove oppression from our mindset and actions, drop the malicious and hate-filled speech.

The motel was on to something with its slogan of keeping the light on. Think how we feel at the end of a long day of journeying, when we are weary and darkness is falling. When we glimpse a light, it beckons us with the hope of a place of warmth, welcome and security, a place to come in from the darkness. In our spiritual lives we are on a journey as well, a journey with each other, a journey back to our heavenly home. There are times when we are in need of another's light that offers us hope, especially when we find ourselves in a time of darkness or perhaps losing our way. At other times, we become that light for another.

In our parish here at St. Patrick's, we are surrounded by so many good and holy witnesses who shine their light for us. Their example gives us a nudge each day to keep going, keep trying to live another day with faith. Our parish is filled with these "lights." We see them at Mass, we see them praying the rosary, we see them bringing communion to the sick, we see them helping the Sisters at Mother Teresa's mission, we see them gathering to study the scriptures and to learn more about their faith, and on and on. Our parish's theme this year is "Called To Be a Community of Saints" and who shines brighter than our Catholic saints? We will focus on different saints throughout this coming year. Their stories can be a light to us as we learn that they, too, sometimes suffered doubt, confusion or weariness along their life's journey, but they chose to keep moving forward in faith to the bright dawn of heaven. Their heroic holiness is a light that bids us to keep going, keep trying.

Pope Francis commented on this passage from St. Matthew's Gospel by saying that prayer is what lights up a Christian life. Prayer is the "battery" that keeps our light shining. So, today, while you contemplate the readings from the liturgy, take a moment to check your battery and see how your light is doing. Keep it burning bright, for we all need to leave that light on for each other.

Thank you for being a light to me!

Sister Eileen

During each of the past two years we have had a spiritual theme for our parish that guided many of our celebrations. In 2015, we celebrated our 100th Anniversary and reflected on the many blessings of our parish. In 2016 Pope Francis guided us through a Jubilee Year of Mercy. During this year we celebrate that we have been Called to be a Community of Saints.

CALLED TO BE A
Community of Saints 2017
St. Patrick Parish
MALVERN, PA

Each month, parishioners will receive prayer cards of two different Saints, giving a brief description of their lives and a prayer to that particular Saint.

For the month of February Saint Josephine Bakhita (feast day February 8) and Saint Katharine Drexel (feast day March 3) will be our role models and inspiration to assist us to be "Saints in the making".

Adoration begins
each Monday immediately
following 9:00AM Mass.
Benediction 6:00PM

Eucharistic Adoration

Twenty-four Hours with the Lord...
Friday March 3rd - Saturday, March 4th

Pope Francis has invited every parish around the world to open its doors for 24 hours to be with the Lord - so that the faithful might encounter Jesus Christ anew in Eucharistic Adoration.

It is intended to be a time of reflection and prayer and a chance to rediscover; or perhaps discover for the first time, the great mercy at the heart of the Catholic Faith.

At St. Patrick Parish we will begin these 24 hours at the 9:00AM Mass on Friday morning, March 3rd. The Mass will be followed by 23 hours of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. At 7:00 PM that evening, Mark Forrest will guide us through a Holy Hour of Prayer and Music.

We will pray, in communion with all of the Saints, asking the Lord, "make our hearts like yours."
