And behold the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star. (Matthew 2:9-10)

Although we are only a week removed from Christmas Day and still within the Christmas Season, much of the world around us has wrapped up their celebrations. The trees that filled homes with bright lights have been taken down; the Christmas music on the radio has vanished and the gifts that weren’t quite right have been returned to the store. In fact, I would venture to guess that there are some people who have already begun to shop for next December.

It seems a shame that the focus of the season, for so many in our society, lies solely on one day…December 25th. Once the day passes, we tend to move on to the next thing on our calendar - the next holiday, the next big event, or even the start of spring. However, the celebration of Christmas is much more! And today’s feast of the Epiphany reminds us of that fact…the fact that the first Christmas Day impacted the world beyond compare.

Throughout my years as a priest I have had a handful of people tell me that they have had a life changing experience…that a retreat or conference or life experience has changed their lives. I would like to think that our celebration of the Season of Christmas should be a life changing experience for all of us.

Parts of our society: the news media, entertainment, shop and store owners, have placed so much emphasis on Christmas Day that the experience can be limited to just December 25th. Yet, if we reflect on the magnitude of that first Christmas we realize that this one day in history has impacted our world more than any other day in history. The challenge is to allow the birth of Christ to impact our lives, and in fact, change our lives three-hundred-sixty-five days a year.

Today’s feast of the Three Kings, who brought gifts of Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh to the infant child Jesus, is a reminder that we need to avoid the lure of the world that sometimes impedes our journey to Christ. The Three Kings were determined to reach the child…following a star, rejecting King Herod’s words of warning, and rejoicing when they found the newborn King.

May we, like these Three Kings, be “wise men and women” and rejoice each day of our lives that God so loved the world that he sent us His Son.

The Epiphany of the Lord

During each of the past two years we have had a spiritual theme for our parish that guided many of our celebrations. In 2015, we celebrated our 100th Anniversary and reflected on the many blessings of our parish. In 2016 Pope Francis guided us through a Jubilee Year of Mercy.

In this upcoming year we will celebrate that we have been Called to be a Community of Saints.

The year will open with a two-day Mission Sunday and Monday, January 22 - 23, 2017 directed by Dr. John Wood.

Dr. Wood is the author of Ordinary Lives, Extraordinary Mission; Choosing the Saint inside. He will be accompanied by singer/songwriter & ministry leader Rachel Ann.

Each month, parishioners will receive prayer cards of two different Saints, giving a brief description of their lives and a prayer to that particular Saint.

The first grade students of St. Patrick School will share with us the stories of some of the Saints at each of the Masses on Sunday, January 29th.
