Prayer for Independence Day

Father of all nations and ages,
 we recall the day when our country claimed its place among the family of nations;
 for what has been achieved we give you thanks,
 for the work that still remains we ask your help,
 and as you have called us from many peoples
 to be one nation,
 grant that, under your providence,
 our country may share your blessings with all the peoples of the earth.
 Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Even on Vacation, there should be time for God!

At this time of year families begin to enjoy a long awaited and well deserved vacation. When we consider that most people work fifty-weeks of the year, maybe seven days a week and countless hours at their job; shouldn't they enjoy some time for fun, sun and relaxation. Hopefully, each of you have planned some of that time, even if it is staying at home, visiting family, enjoying a more relaxed atmosphere. I am a firm believer that everyone needs time away; time to re-charge; time set aside to put the job on the shelf.

My fear though, is that when people plan that well deserved time off from the job, they also take time off from God, Mass and Prayer. As much as I believe that everyone needs a change of pace - time to re-charge, I also believe that we need to be reminded Christ remains with us during those days. Why not consider that our time of rest or vacation can also be a time when we deepen that friendship, strengthen that relationship with the God who loves us.

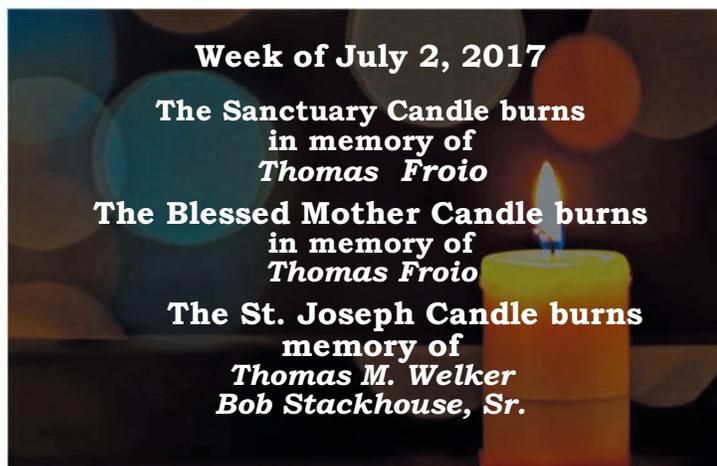

So, I offer the following suggestions:

- ~ Not only find the Catholic Church in whatever place you may be vacationing, also be sure of the Mass times, so you can celebrate with the community at Sunday Mass. In fact, you can visit the website www.masstimes.org to obtain Mass times in churches throughout the world.
- ~ While sitting on the beach, relaxing in the afternoon choose to do some spiritual reading.
- ~ If taking a walk, riding a bike, or out for a run - use your I-Pod to listen to some religious or reflective music.
- ~ It might even be helpful to take a walk alone, with an open mind and heart and listen to the voice of Christ (who will be walking with you) who will remind you that it is He who gives you rest.

Enjoy your summer, enjoy your vacation, rest and relax!
 But, stay in tune with Jesus, your ever-present companion!

God Bless You,
 Father Redcay

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Is there a non-Catholic you know who has expressed interest in our faith and becoming a member of our Church family... or, perhaps, is a baptized Catholic who has not completed their Sacraments of Initiation? If so, you can be an evangelizer by telling them of our parish's RCIA process, which offers catechesis and faith formation in preparation for the Sacraments and initiation into the Catholic Church. Sister Eileen will be happy to give further information and answer any questions about the RCIA. You can contact her at 610-296-8899 or etiernan@stpatrickmalvern.org.

Annual Mission Co-op Appeal

Rev. Anthony Burrascano, O.S.A will be with us at all the Masses the weekend of July 29th-30th to speak about the Augustinian Missionary work. Their work in the missions is a response to the call to love one another through prayer and action by establishing ministries where there is the greatest need.

Your generosity to the second collection on July 29-30 to support the Augustinian Missions will be greatly appreciated.

Help us to update our parish records!

If you are a new family, we ask you to please contact our office at 610-296-8899 to request registration forms. The new student registration forms may also be downloaded from the PREP page on our website: www.stpatrickmalvern.org/faith-formation/prep/ Children who are in 1st grade public school need to be enrolled also in our 1st grade PREP. ARE YOU CALLED TO BE A TEACHER OF THE FAITH?

Our Parish Religious Education Program (PREP), formerly known as C.C.D., provides religious education and faith formation to our elementary age parishioners who attend non-Catholic schools. Our PREP classes provide this education to approximately 375 St. Patrick's parish children. We are always looking for new catechists and aides, mostly on Monday and Tuesday afternoons (4:45- 6:00) and Tuesday evenings (6:30-7:45). We meet from September to early May. Would you consider joining with us in this very rewarding parish ministry? Each catechist follows the Archdiocesan religion curriculum and has a detailed teacher's manual. We provide training and support for new catechists. You do not need to be a professional teacher for this volunteer position. College students and those considering a teaching career are welcome.

Please consider being a teacher of the faith this year and reap the rewards of passing on the faith to a new generation of Catholics! If interested please contact Sr. Eileen at 610-296-8899 or etiernan@stpatrickmalvern.org. Thank you and please pray for our parish children!
