In today's Gospel Jesus teaches us the greatest commandments "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Everything we do has to be from the source of love and properly ordered in the way Jesus has taught us. The Pharisees were not ordered in that way. They loved the law and their knowledge of the law before all else, so they tried to trap Jesus in their knowledge. Pope Francis in a recent homily talks about the Doctors of the Law during Jesus' time. He states that they were closed within their system and had perfectly systemized the law. "Every Jew knew what they could do and what they could not do, how far they could go. It was all systemized. And they were safe there."

Jesus is teaching the Pharisees, Sadducees and us today that anyone who loves God and people wholeheartedly will not come short of knowing His Will for us. We will do what is proper to other people. The challenges of our time are the same as two thousand years ago. How are we interpreting the teachings of the Church today? Is Jesus asking us to change the interpretations of the Church?

In the Catechism of the Church 66-67 we believe that nothing new can be revealed, so we cannot accept "revelations" that claim to surpass or correct the Revelation of which Christ taught us. But, as Pope Francis states that God is a God of surprise that God is always new; "He never denies himself, never says that what He said was wrong, never, but He always surprises us." In the recent news of the Catholic Church, the Synod wants to reemphasize to us God's call for mercy for anyone who is oppressed. Today Jesus is reminding us that when looking at the Church's teachings we need to first be focused on loving God, then our neighbor as ourselves to truly understand what God is telling us.

Finally, the Pope asks that we are open to God's surprises. "We should ask ourselves these questions today and ask the Lord for a heart that loves the law - because the law belongs to God – but which also loves God's surprises and the ability to understand that this holy law is not an end in itself."

God Bless,
Matt Windle, Seminarian

WORLD MEETING OF FAMILIES 2015 Philadelphia

September 22 -27, 2015

LOVE IS OUR MISSION
THE FAMILY FULLY ALIVE

The Church believes that God exists and that He loves us. We make this claim because we have encountered and trust Jesus Christ. This trust enables a relationship in which God's plan for all creation is revealed and disclosed. Confident in this plan. we are able to proclaim that each and every human being is created in the image of God.

WE ARE CREATED FOR JOY!

We are more than an accident of evolution. We are greater than the sum of our biology. God exists. He is good. He loves us. He made us in His image to share in His joy. He takes an active hand in our lives. He sent his only Son to restore our dignity and lead us home to Him. He calls us to joyfully share in his mission.

We will return by 2:00PM.
If you would like to volunteer, please send an email to: stpatrick100@comcast.net

Eucharistic Adoration

Each Monday in our Church beginning immediately after the 9AM Mass. Benediction at 6PM.

The outpouring of those spending time before the Blessed Sacrament during this year of celebrating 100 years of faith at St. Patrick Parish as been overwhelming. May we continue to present ourselves before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

A sign up sheet will remain in the vestibule of the Church for us to commit ourselves to spending some time before the Lord. If you haven't yet begun to spend some time with the Lord on a Monday....it's never too late to begin.
