Liturgical Ministers Wanted

Our Parish Liturgies are enriched by the active participation of so many parishioners. Consider joining the team as a Lector or Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist. We'll be offering training and orientation in September. Sign up now and experience the Mass in deeper way. Contact Tricia Cellucci for more information or to sign up, 610-647-2348 |

If we can be grateful for mercy in our lives, then we will rejoice for mercy shown to others. Mercy heals desires for revenge and lessening anger. Then we are sharing in the joy of Jesus. 'It is the beating heart of the gospel (Pope Francis).

When I began to pray with the readings from today, I felt like I needed some attention medicine because there were so many things going on. Where to begin? What is the main idea here? Why are all these parables lumped together? What have I lost recently? How does that make me feel? I hate it and I was thinking about how finding that one item can preoccupy my life until I do finally find it. We have a sheep who is lost, a coin that is mislaid, and a son who leaves home. And then, what about Moses and God wrestling back and forth in the first reading? In my time of quiet reflection, God gave me a little insight – 2 words - here is what God shared.

Rejoice and Mercy - Jesus rejoices at the repentance of a sinner more than he remembers the sin. Not just because the sinner says "sorry", but because his turning to God makes God happy. God wants to welcome the sinner – us – back with open arms – to embrace and wrap us up in his love and freedom. God seems to want to give the best of himself – his mercy.

Receiving and experiencing God's mercy is our destiny. We are at our best in receiving the mercy of God and the forgiveness of another. We belong to the community of mercy. The sheep belonged in the sheepfold and now is back, a happy sheep on the shoulders of Jesus. The coin belonged to the woman and the coin is back where it belongs. The shepherd and woman rejoice. The son is back with his father and family – and the father rejoices. Why? Because with the mercy of God we are back where we belong – in the love of God. We rejoice in this and God rejoices in our happiness with him.

Do you need to be found by God? Do you need to accept the mercy of another or offer it yourself? Do you need to rejoice and give thanks for the many blessings in your life?

Rejoice and Mercy – take these 2 words with you this week.

St. Patrick's Parish News

Words of Thanks and Welcome!

There have been various changes to our parish office staff during the last few months, so we would like to say Thank you to some and Welcome to others.

Thank you....

Mr. Jack Brennecke has been part of the St. Patrick Staff since 2009 as the Director of Facilities and Maintenance. At the end of October Jack will be retiring to spend more time with his family. We are grateful for the many times Jack responded to the "urgent" needs and emergencies in our parish, as well as his care for our facilities and campus.

Thank you....

Mrs. Barbara King, who has been on staff as a teacher in our school and the administrative assistant for the parish. Due to a recent illness Barb will not be returning to her position at the parish staff. Many of our parishioners have interacted with Barb, as she greeted everyone warmly to the office and assisted them in many ways. We extend our thanks for the many, many ways that she shared her love for our parish and our faith with all of us.

Thank you....

Mrs. Patricia Wood, has also needed to step away from her position on the parish staff due to illness. Pat was the Director of Religious Education for many years and most recently was a member of the parish staff fulfilling various roles. We thank Pat for the many lives she formed in the faith, not only in Religious Education, but also by the example of her life of faith.

Welcome to our new staff members...

Mr. Nick Dellaquila, has been begun as our new Director of Facilities and Maintenance. Nick began working at St. Patrick's on September 4th.

Mrs. Theresa McKeon, is new to our parish staff as the Tuition and Banking Coordinator. She began working in the parish office in mid-July.

Ms. Emily Novak, will begin as the new Administrative Assistant in our parish office on Monday, September 30th.

We welcome Nick, Theresa and Emily to our parish staff!

Catechetical Sunday

Thank you, Catechists!

Today the Church throughout the United States celebrates our annual Catechetical Sunday. The theme for this year is Stay With Us. We take this Sunday observance to thank God for the gift of His Word and teaching that is for all of us...child and adult. We thank God also for inviting us into relationship with Him through prayer and knowledge of Him. But God uses us, His human creatures, to be His hands, eyes and heart on earth. And so, the faith needs to be taught and passed on from one generation to the next. Therefore, today we especially thank and honor those men and women from St. Patrick Parish who offer their time, talent, lived faith and love of God to our parish children... our catechists. Thanks to all of you who said "YES" to this ministry in our parish! May God bless you!

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

If so, you can be an evangelizer by telling them of our parish's RCIA process, which offers catechesis and faith formation for adults in preparation for the Sacraments and initiation into the Catholic Church. Sister Eileen will be happy to give further information and answer any questions about the RCIA. You can contact her at 610-296-8899 or etiernan@stpatrickmalvern.org.
