Third Sunday of Advent

The spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me;
he has sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor,
to heal the brokenhearted,
to proclaim liberty to the captives
and release to the prisoners, to announce a year of favor from the LORD and a day of vindication by our God.

- Isaiah 61:1-2

Staff Reflection

I have always been drawn to the title of Jesus as “Light of the World.” As a kid afraid of the dark, the light was a source of comfort. As an adult, the Light of Christ is a relief as we constantly are exposed to news that shows the dark side of humanity. The Light of the World, Jesus Christ, is the fulfillment of a promise God made to us as His beloved creation that the darkness will never overcome the Light.

Today’s gospel describes a man who was chosen by God to amplify the Light in extraordinary ways. John the Baptist is a colorful figure in the gospels, described wearing clothes of camel’s hair, and eating the unconventional diet of locusts and honey (see Mark 1:6). Today’s readings, however, show what the goal of John the Baptist’s life is: to point towards Christ as the Light of the World and our Savior.

As the priests and Levites question the Baptist’s identity, John refuses to elevate himself beyond who he knows himself to be. It would be so easy for John to say that he himself is the savior instead of Jesus, or that he is a great prophet, because that would undoubtedly bring himself fame and glory. Rather, John diverts attention away from himself repeatedly. He chooses to share the truth about his identity as a witness to the fulfillment of God’s promises to mankind.

Instead of trying to be the light himself, John the Baptist prepares the way so that the Light of Christ can shine over the whole world, ending the darkness of separation between God and humanity. Johnny cries out in the wilderness, to the desolate sand and the uninhabitable spaces devoid of life, that the Lord is coming! His birth is soon! The Light is almost with us! But there is still so much that can impede the light from getting to us. Paths need to be straightened and the rough roads must be smoothed. John the Baptist’s cry is urgent, because transformation on our part is required for the Light’s arrival. Real, lasting repentance in the heart of each and every man, woman, and child paves the way for Christ’s arrival at Christmas.

So what is our role here? We do not have to go into the desert and eat bugs like John the Baptist to be like him (thank goodness!). As Christians, we can be like John the Baptist in the witness that we provide to others. We must focus our attention on the Light of Christ, so that through us, the whole world may know Jesus. We must make paths straight and pave a clear way for the Lord to enter into our lives. It is no secret that there is a lot of darkness in the world, whether it is the sin of pride, arrogance, destructive habits, or indifference. Our choosing to focus on the Light of Christ and His imminent arrival is what allows His Light to shine most brightly. Through our own lives, we can be like John the Baptist, pointing to the Light of Christ and preparing the way for His coming.

Yours in Christ,
Julia Goldschmidt

PREP
Growing in Faith

It is hard to believe that our children have been attending their PREP classes for a few months now. These weeks pass quickly. During December, the children will learn of our Advent faith customs and prayers as we observe this holy season. Before we break for Christmas time, we will celebrate an Advent/Christmas prayer in which all involved in PREP choose a place at the court of the Infant King and try to live that practice all through the coming year. We continue to grow in our love of Jesus as we learn more about him and our Catholic faith. Wishing all in our parish a Blessed Advent and Christmas!

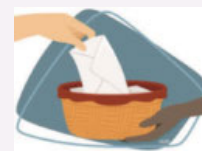

For more information about PREP, please contact Monica Bartoldson (610-296-8899 or mbartoldson@stpatrickmalvern.org) or visit our webpage at:
