From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Drop down dew from above, you heavens, and let the clouds rain down the Just One; let the earth be opened and bring forth a Savior (Entrance Antiphon).

On this Fourth Sunday of Advent and Christmas Eve, these words express the thirst our souls experience for the Savior. With great longing we have awaited His birth during this season of Advent. Our Lord comes to us, born as a baby into our world. The Lord who emptied Himself of majesty and glory is born for us in a manger. In a Christmas card I received, I read these words from Dorothy Day: "I am so glad that Jesus was born in a stable. Because my soul is so much like a stable. It is so poor and in unsatisfactory condition because of guilt, falsehoods, inadequacies and sin. Yet, I believe if Jesus can be born in a stable, maybe He can also be born in me." May all of us take consolation in the love and mercy of the newborn King who comes to dwell in our hearts.

As Saint Patrick Parish celebrates Christmas, I thank all who have done so much to assist in the preparations for the Nativity of Our Lord: Father Arul, Father Cavara, Father O'Donnell, Deacon Lou Libbi, Deacon Tom Strohmetz, and all of the Parish Office Staff (Julia Goldschmidt, Dan Milani, Theresa McKeon, Laura DeJong), Miss O'Donnell, and all of the Faculty and Staff of Saint Patrick School, Sister Eileen, Mrs. Bartoldson, and all of catechists and volunteers in our Parish Religious Education Program. I thank Bill Lindsay and Fred Feeko for all their hard work, as well as our volunteer Sacristans and Knights of Columbus. I am grateful to Ed and Ann Gunning and Margy Daniels and the volunteers who decorated the church. I thank our altar servers, lectors, extraordinary ministers, ushers, greeters and collection counters, and a very special thank you to Bill Norman, our Adult Choir and Children's Choir, as well as our cantors and instrumentalists, for enhancing our Liturgies with sacred music. So much work takes place "behind-the-scenes" in preparation for Christmas. I thank all who do so much, and all of you for your generous and prayerful support.

As we gather on this Holy Night to celebrate the birth of Jesus, who was laid in a manger, let us approach the manger with awe and gratitude. Let us approach Our Blessed Lady and Saint Joseph and ask them to help us to adore and love the Holy Child! Pope Francis tells us: "The Christmas manger, the first message of the Divine Child, tells us that God is with us, he loves us and he seeks us. So take heart! Do not allow yourself to be overcome by fear, resignation or discouragement. God was born in a manger so that you could be reborn in the very place where you thought you had hit rock bottom. There is no evil, there is no sin, from which Jesus does not want to save you. And he can. Christmas means that God is close to us: let confidence be reborn" (Pope Francis, Homily for the Nativity of the Lord, Christmas 2022)!

I join the Priests, Deacons, and entire Parish Staff in wishing all of you a Blessed and Merry Christmas!

Monsignor Duncan

PREP
Growing in Faith

It is hard to believe that our children have been attending their PREP classes for a few months now. These weeks pass quickly. During December, the children will learn of our Advent faith customs and prayers as we observe this holy season. Before we break for Christmas time, we will celebrate an Advent/Christmas prayer in which all involved in PREP choose a place at the court of the Infant King and try to live that practice all through the coming year. We continue to grow in our love of Jesus as we learn more about him and our Catholic faith. Wishing all in our parish a Blessed Advent and Christmas!

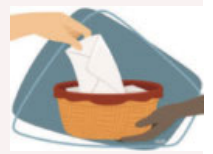

For more information about PREP, please contact Monica Bartoldson (610-296-8899 or mbartoldson@stpatrickmalvern.org) or visit our webpage at:
