Staff Reflection

On this first Sunday after Christmas, the Liturgy invites us to celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family of Nazareth. Indeed, every nativity scene shows us Jesus together with Our Lady and St. Joseph in the manger at Bethlehem. How amazing it is that God wanted to be born into a human family!

We call them the “Holy Family,” but that does not mean they did not have their problems and struggles. Their many challenges come to mind as we read through the scriptures:

- We can imagine how misunderstood both Mary and Joseph must have been when Mary conceived Jesus through the Holy Spirit. Their story would never be believed.
- When Jesus was born it was the most difficult of circumstances as the birth took place in an animals' cave.
- Mary and Joseph lost Jesus in the crowd.
- Jesus' public ministry must have been hard on Mary.
- Mary had to watch her son die on the cross.

What kept The Holy Family together throughout all these trials and crosses? I think the answer is their love for each other and God, their obedience, and being in synch with what God wanted them to do.

St. Paul told us in today's second reading, as God's family we should clothe ourselves with “heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another” (Colossians 3:12-13). The family is the place where we learn to love and be loved. It is where we help one another and where we learn to forgive and to ask for forgiveness. Sometimes this is really hard – I come from a big family with some big personalities. We have a ton of fun together – lots of laughs, memories and stories. But, although I love my family to death, I sometimes need a break from them – I guess I need to pray for more compassion, gentleness and patience?!

Just as the Holy Family survived all of its crises through love for each other and faith in God, we pray during this Mass that our families will conquer all difficulties through love for each other and faith in God. And keep praying for compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience! Happy New Year!
