From the Pastor's Desk

The Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On September 30, 2019, Pope Francis, in his Apostolic Letter, Aperuit Illis, designated the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time as the Sunday of the Word of God. God's Word is timeless, living and active, and calls us to conversion, discipleship, and holiness. We never can exhaust the power of God's Word and to have constant recourse to Sacred Scripture is like drinking from a refreshing fountain or finding a priceless treasure.

The many distractions of our age have caused many to forget the importance of Scripture in our prayer lives. Even when we gather for Mass, we can become distracted from listening during the Liturgy of the Word. Often, the Scriptures speak directly to our hearts when we least expect; but, sometimes, we fail to be attentive. In order to help the Faithful recapture that profound appreciation for Sacred Scripture, Pope Francis has established this day and reminds us: "Sacred Scripture accomplishes its prophetic work above all in those who listen to it" (Aperuit Illis, 12). The great Doctor of the Church, Saint Jerome, stated it quite clearly: "Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ."

"Regular reading of Sacred Scripture and the celebration of the Eucharist make it possible for us to see ourselves as part of one another. As Christians, we are a single people, making our pilgrim way through history, sustained by the Lord, present in our midst, Who speaks to us and nourishes us. A day devoted to the Bible should not be seen as a yearly event but rather a year-long event, for we urgently need to grow in our knowledge and love of the Scriptures and of the Risen Lord, Who continues to speak His Word and to break bread in the community of believers. For this reason, we need to develop a closer relationship with Sacred Scripture; otherwise, our hearts will remain cold and our eyes shut, struck as we are by so many forms of blindness" (Aperuit Illis, 8).

On this Sunday of the Word of God, along with Father Arul, Father O'Donnell, Father Cavara, Deacon Lou, and Deacon Tom, I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to the men and women who generously assist us in the proclamation of Scripture at Mass through their ministry as Lectors. Their prayerful preparation is evident in the reverent manner in which they read at Mass. I also thank our catechists and teachers, who, through their devotion to sharing the Word of God, instill in our children a growing desire to learn our holy Catholic Faith. Thank you also to the Pastoral Staff at Saint Patrick Church, who tirelessly coordinate our adult faith formation opportunities, inviting greater encounter with Our Divine Lord.

With God's grace, may we all take refuge in the Word of God and may we never tire of drinking from this sacred fountain!

Yours in the love of Christ,
Monsignor Duncan
