If you wish,
you can make me clean.

Moved with pity,
he stretched out his hand,
touched him,
and said to him,
“I do will it.
Be made clean.”

Staff Reflection

As we enter the season of Lent on Wednesday, I thought it would be appropriate to share a poem I wrote in 2022. I hope it is helpful for you to begin this lent with joy and to embrace the true value and purpose of the cross of our Savior Jesus Christ.

THE GREATEST GIFT

Oh, my soul, if only you know the value of death, you would give it all for the sake of it. For.....

Birth is not the beginning of life,
Nor death it's end.

Birth is only an unconscious waking,
Death is consciousness awakening.

At birth you cry, and others laugh and celebrate,
At death they cry, and you laugh and celebrate.

At birth others teach you to gather and hoard,
At death you teach them detachment and liberation.

At birth you are categorised as son/daughter/fair/black/ ugly/beauty,
At death you cut the code with all and become one with the Being of all beings.

At birth others feed you because you are helpless,
At death people feed each other, for they cannot help their own hunger.

At birth you are taught to count,
At death others count your money and materials.

At birth others proclaim you a human,
At death you reclaim your own divinity.

At birth your ego begins to inflate into nothing,
At death inflated ego gets deflated into wholeness.

At birth you go to school to learn,
At death you become the lesson for others to learn.

At birth your senses seek satisfaction,
At death you call us a senseless generation of sensual.

Oh, my soul, why delay still;
Begin to learn the art of dying!
That you may leave behind a mural of;
Beauty and bliss, joy, peace, goodness, and holiness!
For generations to look and learn. Oh, My Soul!!!

Blessings,
Fr. S. Arul Amalraj, O. Praem

Lenten Daily Reflections

This Lent start your day off with a short reflection based on the Mass Readings from the day. Parish clergy and staff offer a brief reflection delivered right to your inbox.

Sign up now at: <https://saintpat.net/reflect>

Traveling Crucifix

Parishioners are invited to create a special place in their home for the traveling crucifix for three days. A prayer booklet with readings and reflections will be provided which includes content for each day. There is an alternate version of the booklet for families with young children. When your time with the crucifix is complete you are asked to pass it on to the next family.

More information and sign-up at: <https://saintpat.net/crucifix>

Desert Fathers

February 26, March 4 & March 11

The Desert Fathers were compelled to leave their lives behind and entered the desert in search of God. Their former lives ranged from thugs to tutors of the Ancient Roman families.

Presented by Chris Hall, these sessions will explore the lives of three Desert Fathers and how their experiences can inform our own Lenten Journey today and help us deepen our relationship with God.

Chris' own story is a testimony to the surprising ways God leads us on our own spiritual journeys. From the Jesus movement, to the leadership of Eastern University and most recently in his conversion to Catholicism Chris has faithfully followed God's lead and served His people whenever God has placed him.

If you're looking for something to jumpstart your Lenten Journey be sure to join us for one or all of these sessions.

Join the Flock!

We are so glad you're here today. Stay in touch and receive our weekly parish Flocknotes (email) which includes updates and invitations to parish events and activities. Text the keyword "saintpats" to 84576 and you will receive all the latest news.
