Staff Reflection

If we imagined that Jesus would gently enter into his public ministry with something non-confrontational to please the crowds and, hopefully, to start to win the favor of the authorities, we will be disappointed by the course of action He takes in today's Gospel. With the zeal of a Son who sees his Father's house desecrated, Jesus cleanses the temple during a Passover feast, driving out the animals and the merchants who have trespassed to take up residence there for their own profit.

The tables of the moneychangers and the sellers of animals had become such a production that they were crowding out the people who had come for worship. The enterprise had become so chaotic and crowded that in a very literal sense, it was separating the people from worshiping God. Jesus comes in and drives out what has gotten in the way. He pours out the money, he drives out the sellers, he overturns the tables, and he angers the religious leaders. And, again, his disciples are impressed. But what Jesus is after is deep, lasting change. What Jesus is after is repentance. What Jesus is after is making space for what is holy – for him and his Father.

And that is change only God can bring about. It is not about getting our lives cleaned up before coming into God's presence. It is about opening the door and inviting Jesus in so we can see what Jesus does, because Jesus is the one overturning the tables in our hearts and lives and making the holy mess we need so that we can make space for God.

I am using the Hallow app this Lenten Season and participating in the 40 Days of Lent Challenge. The focus is the life of Fr. Walter Cizek and his book He Leadeth Me. So far the emphasis has been on surrendering to God and asking God to show us His will. Jesus is asking us during this Lenten Season to make space for him, to surrender to him and to overturn what has gotten in the way of loving him, others and ourselves. Jesus, I surrender myself to you.

St. Patrick's Day Parish Potluck Dinner

Thursday, March 14th—6:00PM to 7:30PM

Back by popular demand! Join us for a family friendly dinner to celebrate our parish patron, St. Patrick!

Share a favorite dish and spend an evening of fun with fellow parishioners.

More details and dish sign-up can be found by scanning the QR code.

Desert Fathers

March 4 & March 11

The Desert Fathers were compelled to leave their lives behind and entered the desert in search of God. Their former lives ranged from thugs to tutors of the Ancient Roman families.

Presented by Chris Hall, these sessions will explore the lives of three Desert Fathers and how their experiences can inform our own Lenten Journey today and help us deepen our relationship with God.

Chris' own story is a testimony to the surprising ways God leads us on our own spiritual journeys. From the Jesus movement, to the leadership of Eastern University and most recently in his conversion to Catholicism, Chris has faithfully followed God's lead and served His people whenever God has placed him.

If you're looking for something to jumpstart your Lenten Journey be sure to join us for one or all of these sessions.

Day of Reconciliation - Friday, March 22nd

Wherever you might find yourself along the journey of faith, know that the Lord is calling you to return to Him to be embraced by His love. St. Patrick Parish will celebrate this great gift of Love and Forgiveness during a Day of Reconciliation. Beginning at 9:30am (lasting until 6:30pm), priests will be available in the Church to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Whether it has been a month, a year, a decade or longer, you are invited to return to the Father to be healed, forgiven and loved.

Traveling Crucifix

Parishioners are invited to create a special place in their home for the traveling crucifix for three days. A prayer booklet with readings and reflections will be provided which includes content for each day. There is an alternate version of the booklet for families with young children. When your time with the crucifix is complete you are asked to pass it on to the next family.

It's not too late to participate!
Openings remain towards the later times in Lent.

Outreach Opportunities

Duo For Diapers

Diaper Drive

Help local Great Valley High School juniors Jack and Red Thomas collect diapers for their service project "Duo for Diapers!" From now until March 10, donate diapers in the box in the back of the church to benefit Philadelphia Catholic Social Services. Diapers of all sizes are needed, but sizes 3-4 are most used.

More information is available by scanning the QR code →

Operation Easter Outfit!

Donate a new Easter outfit to a child through one of our area service partners.

Clothes should be dropped off in a shopping bag on a hanger to the bins in the church by the weekend of March 3/9 and 3/10. Please attach the child's name & code ID to clothing. We suggest dresses for girls and khaki style pants and polo shirts for boys & no accessories, please.

If you would prefer to make a monetary donation to Partners In Outreach, P.O. Box 21, Chester Springs, PA 19425 or donate online at www.partnersinoutreach.org.

To sign up for a child's needs, please use the Sign-Up Genius. Just scan the QR code -- >

Explanation of the O.C.I.A. (formerly RCIA) Rites during Lent

The OCIA, which is an acronym for Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, is the process whereby adults prepare to receive the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil Mass. These adults meet over many months to pray and learn of the teachings of the Catholic Church and the Sacraments. In Catholic parishes all over the world, all new adult members of the Church are received into the Catholic faith at the solemn Easter Vigil liturgy with the reception of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. These three sacraments are referred to as the Sacraments of Initiation.

Those going through the OCIA process, or faith journey, are either Catechumens or Candidates. Catechumens have never been baptized, and therefore, would be receiving all three of the Initiation Sacraments. Candidates have already been baptized, either in another Christian faith or Catholic. We recognize one Baptism, so if someone is validly baptized a Christian in a Protestant church, we recognize that baptism. They would not need to be re-baptized as a Catholic. In that case, they would make a Profession of Faith in the beliefs and teachings of the Roman Catholic Church, and then be Confirmed and receive Eucharist. A baptized, yet not fully initiated Catholic, would complete their initiation by receiving the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist.

On the 1st Sunday of Lent, all catechumens are presented to the Bishop of their diocese, and they are "elected" by the Bishop to receive the Easter Sacraments. From that point on they are referred to as "the elect." Throughout Lent, the elect celebrate rites known as the "scrutinies" on the 3rd, 4th and 5th Sundays of Lent. You will see these rites taking place at various masses on these Sundays. These rites are meant to call the elect, and all of us present, to pray for deeper conversion and turning from sin, as they draw closer to Easter. At these masses, when the elect are present, the readings at that mass are changed to reflect the themes of life-giving water, light and sight and new life, which point them to their baptism at Easter. Our parish will be celebrating these scrutiny rites at the 5:00 vigil mass on March 2nd; the 9:30 mass on March 10th; and the 11:30 mass on March 17th.

The new Catholic Preaching Institute (CPI) at Saint Charles Seminary invites you to participate in what could be the largest-ever study of its kind in the nation. Using the survey below, tell us what you think about the homilies you hear at Mass – really! honestly! It only takes 10 minutes to do!

To take the survey visit <https://www.scs.edu/preaching/>

Then invite each of your family members to do the same and share this with all your Catholic friends and contacts! With everyone's input, CPI will design programs to make preaching in the archdiocese more compelling ... so that your experience of the Word of God becomes even more inspiring. Don't wait – the survey closes March 22!
