God So Loved the World

In today's Gospel we are reminded that: For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, so everyone who believes in Him might not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through Him.

All of us know the cruelty that Jesus took on for us. He exposed how cruel mankind can be. Even today it seems people can be cruel to others. We can just turn on the news and see shootings, car jackings, robbery, etc. It seems there is just a low value to the way others consider human life. We can even see it in the way some people feel about the unborn child. There are other ways we too can disrespect human dignity, by spreading bad thoughts about another, gossiping, or just not accepting others. It can make us think, what would we have done if we were in the crowd with the ones shouting, crucify Him?

But we also know and must remember, that all of us who have been baptized have received the light of Christ. We are people of the light, and we can bring the light into the darkness. We have been strengthened by the Holy Spirit in Confirmation and we receive Christ in the Eucharist. It is through this help we can share the light of Christ. Lent is a perfect time to get closer to Christ and stronger in His love. This will then help us bring Christ to help others, so we can have Him continue to spread His love. Why not ask the Holy Spirit to give us opportunities to be vessels of His love? So, all of us who truly believe in Him and live the truth through Him, will have eternal life.

God Bless,
Deacon Lou

Desert Fathers

March 11 - Last Session, but it's not too late to join!

The Desert Fathers were compelled to leave their lives behind and entered the desert in search of God. Their former lives ranged from thugs to tutors of the Ancient Roman families.

Presented by Chris Hall, these sessions will explore the lives of three Desert Fathers and how their experiences can inform our own Lenten Journey today and help us deepen our relationship with God.

Chris' own story is a testimony to the surprising ways God leads us on our own spiritual journeys. From the Jesus movement, to the leadership of Eastern University and most recently in his conversion to Catholicism, Chris has faithfully followed God's lead and served His people whenever God has placed him.

If you're looking for something to jumpstart your Lenten Journey be sure to join us for one or all of these sessions.

Day of Reconciliation - Friday, March 22nd

Wherever you might find yourself along the journey of faith, know that the Lord is calling you to return to Him to be embraced by His love. St. Patrick Parish will celebrate this great gift of Love and Forgiveness during a Day of Reconciliation. Beginning at 9:30am (lasting until 6:30pm), priests will be available in the Church to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Whether it has been a month, a year, a decade or longer, you are invited to return to the Father to be healed, forgiven and loved.

The new Catholic Preaching Institute (CPI) at Saint Charles Seminary invites you to participate in what could be the largest-ever study of its kind in the nation. Using the survey below, tell us what you think about the homilies you hear at Mass – really! honestly! It only takes 10 minutes to do!

To take the survey visit <https://www.scs.edu/preaching/>

Then invite each of your family members to do the same and share this with all your Catholic friends and contacts! With everyone's input, CPI will design programs to make preaching in the archdiocese more compelling ... so that your experience of the Word of God becomes even more inspiring. Don't wait – the survey closes March 22!

Spiritual Direction: for Lent and Every Season

"Count it all joy, my brethren, when you meet various trials, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness. And let steadfastness have its full effect, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing" (James 1:2-4).

It seems that "joy" and "trials" have little in common, but as people of faith, we understand they are intertwined. God's love calls us to gladness, as well as to suffering and sacrifice.

Spiritual direction can help us reorient to God. It invites us to open and attune our hearts to His voice so that we might discern how and to what He is calling us.
