From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With the Fifth Sunday of Lent, the Church enters that portion of Lent known as Passiontide. Traditionally, Crucifixes and statues in Church are veiled in purple to mark the solemn mood of this time as we draw nearer to Holy Week and the Easter Triduum. Our Lord in the Gospel foretells his impending Passion: "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified." Jesus makes it clear that his disciples also will have a share in the mystery of the Cross. "Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be. The Father will honor whoever serves me" (John 12: 26).

March 17 marks the Feast of Saint Patrick, but, because this falls on a Sunday of Lent, we do not commemorate him liturgically this year. Nonetheless, Saint Patrick stands out as one who served the Lord, followed unreservedly, and is greatly honored by the Father. Saint Patrick was a man of courage and strength. His mission to Ireland was constantly motivated by the love of Christ and the desire to serve Him. Amidst the trials of his mission, Saint Patrick indeed knew that he was surrounded and protected by the love of God: "I arise today through God's strength to pilot me, God's might to uphold me, God's wisdom to guide me, God's eye to look before me, God's ear to hear me, God's word to speak for me, God's hand to guard me, God's way to lie before me, God's shield to protect me..." (The Breastplate of Saint Patrick). As we honor Saint Patrick, let us imitate his keen sense of our call to missionary discipleship, the nearness of God and the power of Divine Love. May we be missionaries who radiate the tenderness and love of God!

On March 19, the Church celebrates Saint Joseph, Foster Father of Jesus, Chaste Spouse of the Virgin Mary, and Protector of the Universal Church. This faithful and prudent steward is greatly honored by God the Father and the Universal Church is entrusted to his protection and intercession. Saint Joseph is a model of discipleship as well, of fidelity to all that God asked of him. "In the Gospels, Saint Joseph appears as a strong and courageous man, a working man, yet in his heart we see great tenderness, which is not the virtue of the weak but rather a sign of strength of spirit and a capacity for concern, for compassion, for genuine openness to others, for love. We must not be afraid of goodness, of tenderness" (Pope Francis).

May Saint Joseph and Saint Patrick intercede for our Parish and obtain for us abundant blessings! Happy Saint Patrick's Day! Happy Saint Joseph's Day!

With love and prayers,
Monsignor Duncan

With everyone's input, CPI will design programs to make preaching in the archdiocese more compelling ... so that your experience of the Word of God becomes even more inspiring. ## Spiritual Direction: for Lent and Every Season

"Count it all joy, my brethren, when you meet various trials, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness. And let steadfastness have its full effect, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing" (James 1:2-4).

It seems that "joy" and "trials" have little in common, but as people of faith, we understand they are intertwined. God's love calls us to gladness, as well as to suffering and sacrifice.

Spiritual direction can help us reorient to God. It invites us to open and attune our hearts to His voice so that we might discern how and to what He is calling us.
